

“Loosen Up your Acrylic Painting with Big, Wild Intentions!”

This “Loosen Up” Workshop is all about creating new, fresh directions in your old work. It’s like a college masters program where individual intentions are encouraged. Robert Burridge does not force his style on anyone, but instead helps you to paint the way you have always wanted to paint and to think as a creative, gifted individual. You will begin a painting series with your own conceptual theme, working everyday at your own pace. You may create a body of work towards your next possible solo exhibit. This is the place for you to do it.

Every morning there are daily handouts, a brief paint demo/lecture to inspire you. Throughout the day, Burridge will help you individually with personal critiques and motivational pointers why you became a painter in the first place. Plenty of play time for the serious painter. Come prepared to have an exhausting, exhilarating painter’s life experience!
